

Greener Choices at the Wilmette Public Library

Grow Your Own Food

Saturday, February 7, 2009

2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

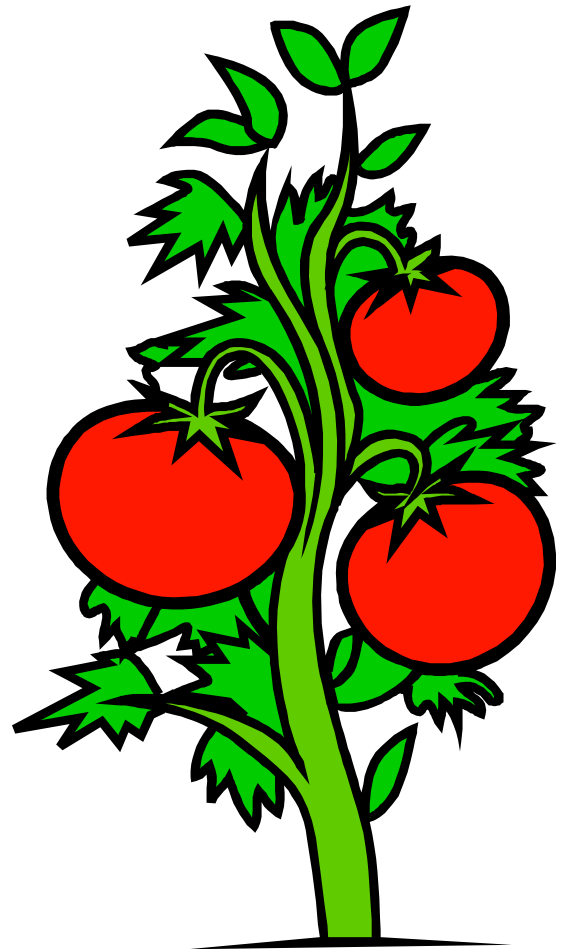

Auditorium

Learn from Wilmette residents and local experts how YOU can grow your own food in your yard or a community garden plot.

Special guest Jeanne Pinsof Nolan will share her tips from her years as "The Organic Gardener" and project manager for Chicago's Green City Market. You'll find information on everything from preparing your soil and starting seedlings to harvesting and cooking your homegrown food, and everything in between.

Learn about local resources and compare experiences with fellow locavores. Organic refreshments included!

For beginning and experienced gardeners.
